President Coffman assumed a motion to approve the minutes from November 18, 2016

3. Old Business

3.1 Merchant Discount Card –Update on list and getting window decals for merchants

STudent Rights Advocate Brown went to the businesses but only one had their manager in when she went to meet with them. She will attempt to reach them again this week.

Secretary Goebel suggested the senate try getting the businesses for the discount program over the winter break as finals are almost here and the senate will be very busy with their finals.

3.2 Giving Tuesday

It went well overall but, there was some confusion behind where to drop off donated cans. Next time the senate thinks it would be beneficial to have signs.

3.3 Window Tinting

Advisor Warf called maintenance to see the status of the windows. They said it was approved through them, so the company tint pros could come on campus and install them.

3.4 Bank Mobile- Direct deposit of financial aid

President Coffman told Ulises Velasco that ASMC is behind the direct deposit system.

4. Discussion Items

4.1 Student Holiday Lunch

Activities Director Gordon informed the senate that Stan's Maple will be happy to make the turkey, ham, and mashed potatoes. They would do 200 servings of turkey 100 servings of ham, and 300 servings of mashed potatoes.

Student Trustee Edington informed the senate that she got contact from Susan Orozco and Tasha Whetzel, who are willing to donate a large salad and dressings. Victoria Ramos will bring macaroni salad, and Toni Fort is willing to serve food and or bring food. She will email all of them back.

Toni Novellie would like to know if we have a flyer so that we can post one on the school televisions.

4.2 Spring goals

Student Rights Advocate Brown would like to see more fundraisers, she thinks it would be a good idea to be on the agenda during every meeting, as to keep up and create new ideas.

Vice President Moroney would like to make amending the constitution and bylaws a goal this semester.

Student Rights Advocate Brown wants to do an event for all members of ASMC.

Advisor Warf advised the senate to keep on top of elections, scholarships, and commencements.

4.3 Spring Clubs Day

Vice President Moroney has not received a list of contacts for I.C.C., he's not sure if it will be possible to have a meeting before the end of the semester. However, he hope to meet with them within the first couple of weeks.

4.4 Fundraising

Advisor Warf suggested a raffle.

Student Rights Advocate Brown suggested a masquerade ball.

Secretary Goebel suggested a spring break bash

Student Trustee suggested the senate could target the community as well, ie the gala people

Vice President Moroney suggested the senate could use more of the campus, maybe hold a silent auction.

Secretary Goebel moved to extend time by 3 minutes.

Seconded by Student Trustee Edington.

None opposed, motion passed.

Student Trustee Edington advised the senate, that if they want to do the spring fling then they should ask the events committee to work out details.

The senate agreed.
