Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Increase comfort level with and ability to study and discuss sensitive topics relating to human sexuality
2. “Unlearn” the many myths and misconceptions about sexuality
3. Increase awareness, tolerance and respect for sexual diversity
4. Enhance ability to evaluate intelligently and critically the vast amount of sexual information received both from the media and from social interactions with others
5. Develop a “personal sexual philosophy”, to allow for planning ahead to make responsible, healthy sexual choices throughout life (i.e., contraception, avoiding STIs, combating sexual violence, etc.)
6. Develop an awareness of, ability to recognize, and the comfort to seek medical attention and treatment for sexual problems or infections, if necessary.
7. Understanding what is “normal” sexuality to remove personal doubts and insecurities
8. Enhance ability to discuss sexuality accurately and openly with peers and/or the students’ own children, present or future.
