

Mendocino College

Program SLO Report

Program Title: Human Services Paraprofessional

Originator: Daniel Jenkins

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Outcome:

Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of the characteristics and key concepts related to Human Service Paraprofessional occupations

Activity:

(Assessment: Exams, essays, individual and group projects)

2. Outcome:

Graduates will demonstrate a thorough knowledge of, and ability to fulfill, Human Service Paraprofessional duties and responsibilities

Activity:

(Assessment: Application of skills in a human services workplace, as observed and evaluated by a workplace supervisor)

3. Outcome:

Graduates will readily find entry-level employment in Human Services paraprofessional positions

Activity:

(Assessment: MIS data)

4. Outcome:

Program graduates and employers of program graduates will verify that the education received in our program prepares graduates to function competently in Human Service Paraprofessional positions.

Activity:

(Assessment: Employer and graduate surveys; Advisory Committee member feedback)

5. Outcome:

Human Service Paraprofessional program instructors, staff, and other key college personnel will maintain a regular, constructive and collegial dialogue with partnering human service agencies in order to optimize student educational experiences.

Activity:

(Assessment: Human Service Advisory committee makeup, involvement, and feedback)