No. 215.1

MENDOCINO - LAKE COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

TRUSTEE SELF-EVALUATION PROCESS

A self-evaluation of the Board will be conducted every other year in even years. The Assessment Document will be reviewed/ revised at the August Trustee Workshop. The Assessment Document will be completed by each trustee including the student trustee and submitted to the Board President by the first day in October. The Board President will compile the responses and present the completed Trustee Self-Evaluation at the open session of the November Board meeting.

Additionally, all members of the District staff who regularly participate in Board meetings will be given the opportunity to submit narrative comments regarding the Board's performance. These comments will be submitted to the Superintendent/President who will summarize them without reference to the source. The summary will be forwarded to the Board President for inclusion in the final trustee evaluation.
