Minutes Approval: M/S/C (Cristi/Eric) RESOLVED, that the ASMC does hereby approve the minutes from last weeks meeting.

Public Comments: Phil Warf spoke regarding about the new forms for purchase orders and mileage reimbursements also less money will be disbursed for mileage. Asked for more fliers to to be put up regarding ASMC Stickers.

Old Business: Meeting over break? Didn't happen

Discussion Items: 5.1 President Baumgardner had a difficult time contacting senate members over winter break. Solution: Everyone check email and respond.

5.2 No "Welcome Week" refreshments were distributed. Money ($200.00) will be set aside for time being.

5.3 Student Ambassador, Jenny Lu spoke regarding the importance of getting students to attend the March in March event. Region Two is handling security, volunteers are needed. Student Rights Advocate, Christopher Berry: "the word "protest" should not be used to describe this event - it is a rally." Suggestions: Academic Advisor, Phil Warf will talk to faculty about giving an excused absence to students attending. Student Ambassador, Jenny Lu: have a "town hall" meeting to inform students.

5.4 Student Ambassador, Jenny Lu: Region Two and Region Three are trying to collaborate and have a workshop on "How to Speak to Senators, Advocacy etc" - this has not been approved yet. Region Two meeting to be held in Ukiah. Officers urged to attend this meeting to become more aware of Region Two activities. February 8-12 is a delegation week for Region Two. Student Ambassador Jenny Lu will not be present for that week.

5.5 Student Ambassador, Jenny Lu and Student Rights Advocate, Christopher Berry asked permission to attend the SSSCC meetings in Sacramento on February 6 and 7.

5.6 President Ben Baumgardner asked for ideas regarding the ASMC stickers program. Student Ambassador Jenny Lu: Welcome Back BBQ is free to students w/stickers, small fee for students without (stickers). Lake Representative Christie McElhenie: Talked to Lake County businesses involvement.
