

The Mission

The mission of the Friends of the Mendocino College Library is to develop support for materials, programs, and services that will better serve the students, faculty, staff, and community at the Mendocino College Library.

About the Friends

The Friends of the Mendocino College Library is a nonprofit organization sponsored by the Mendocino College Foundation that promotes the development of the Mendocino College Library as a place for educational development, cultural activities, research, and recreational reading. The membership consists of students, faculty, staff and community members, and is open to the community at large. Membership runs from July 1 to June 30 of each year and includes borrowing privileges and access to the library's collections.

Benefits of Being a Member

It provides access to 30,000 library materials, research databases, a video viewing area, special collections, and access to a wealth of information. In addition, you will receive invitations to author readings, lectures, and other literary events.
