Student Senate Election Regulations

- Campaigning by candidates or their representatives must be conducted in good taste in the manner of expressing ideas. No language, pictures, drawings, or photographs used in any campaigning material distributed, displayed, or circulated may be vulgar or profane.
- There shall be no distribution in a classroom while a class is in session without the express permission of the instructor. The place and activity of distribution is not to interfere with the normal flow of traffic within the college corridors and walk ways or impede entry to and from the college property.
- No campaigning material shall be placed on the private property of other persons or agencies (telephone poles, vehicles, and bicycles) or any painted walls and surfaces.
- No campaigning material shall be placed over previously posted materials or on direction, emergency, or warning signs.
- No campaigning shall be allowed within 100 feet E- of the official voting area.
- All printed material must be approved by the ASMC.
- Once elected, an officer cannot run for the same office for more than two (2) consecutive terms.

In the event that any of the above stated regulations are deemed by anyone to be violated, that violation is to be brought before the ASMC Election Committee. The Election Committee will then review the complaint, hear testimony from both sides, make a decision, and impose penalties if necessary. Those penalties could be, but are not limited to, removal of propaganda, being prohibited from speaking in public about the election, and/or removal of the candidates name from the ballot. The candidate whose name is removed from the ballot may not be allowed to run for office for one year.
