Educational institutions across the U.S. continue to be held more accountable, and, as a college, we must demonstrate and document a shift from being a teaching-oriented institution to being a learning oriented institution.

Our purpose is to respond to accreditation standards, particularly those concerning the development and assessment of student learning outcomes (SLOs), to engage in dialogue about Mendocino College's assessment efforts, and to document and guide the establishment of institutional, program, and course level SLO's

4. Typical Actions/Decisions: *

Reference text: https://www.mendocino.edu/sites/default/files/committee_handbook_2012_archived_0.pdf

- Transition and assist faculty from using the eLumen site to using Canvas Insights for SLO assessment
- Work with faculty to create and revise more equitable and assessable SLOs at institutional-, program-, and course-levels
- Identify assessment tools for measuring SLOs, as well as design effective tools for reporting and sharing this data
- Close the feedback loop and use assessment results to improve student learning
- Hold workshops to help faculty make SLO assessment more meaningful
