Career Opportunities in ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE

Completing the baccalaureate degree or graduate level work can lead to a variety of opportunities. An administration of justice degree is not limited to law enforcement. Administration of justice degree graduates can work in state law enforcement agencies. Examples of these agencies are crime laboratories, state crime commissions, narcotics bureaus and liquor control boards. Criminal justice degree graduates can also work in federal law enforcement divisions. These include the different Departments of Defense, Homeland Security, FBI, Veterans Affairs, Office of the Inspector General and Food and Drug Administration. They also have the option to work in private sectors such as detective agencies, insurance companies, safety officers units and security patrol.
