VI. DISCUSSION
   A. Committee Training
      Frederickson shared with the committee some highlights from the Curriculum Institute that took place this past summer. Some of these highlights included updates from the Chancellor’s Office, IDEAA in curriculum, and the Rising Scholar program. There were also some updates with legislation that will soon affect the work of the Curriculum Committee.

   B. Committee Goals
      Frederickson reviewed the 2021-22 committee goal and asked the committee if there were any needed revisions or if there were any additional goals to be added. Frederickson told the committee to think about it and will bring back to a future meeting.

   C. Articulation Update
      Osea provided the committee with an articulation updated that included updates on transfer partnerships with four-year universities and CCCs, new UC transferable courses, Ethnic Studies requirements, and upcoming legislation. Polak recommended creating a sub-committee for the upcoming Ethnic Studies institutional requirement. Polak suggested AO Osea chair the committee and include counselors, Varela, and additional instructional faculty. Aguirre added that she is interested as did Mendoza.
