Progress Reports & Counseling Appointments

FYI Students are required to submit a progress report (academic status report) once per semester.

How do I complete my progress report?

- First, log onto Canvas & look up your course grades
- Next, go to the progress report form linked below & enter each course name, number & grade.
- Lastly, review the progress report with the FYI counselor during your next counseling appointment.

Go to the following site to complete the progress report:

<https://tinyurl.com/y3fwnu9o>

Due: Prior to your next counseling appoint & no later than Friday, October 16
